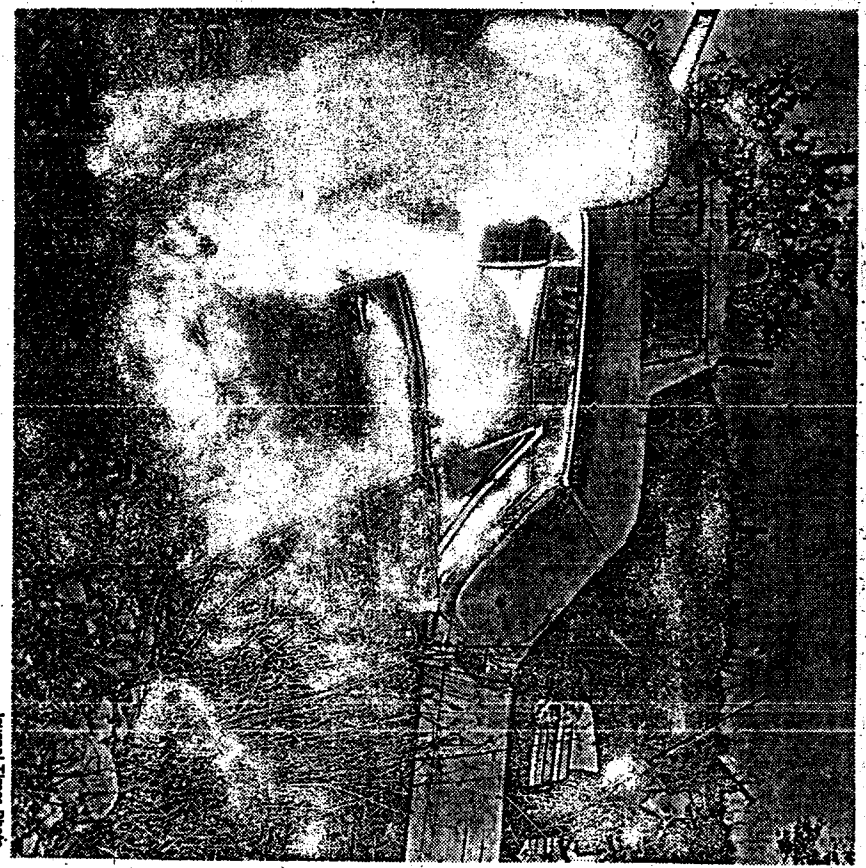
RACINE JOURNAL-TIMES

RACINE, WIS., SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 18, 1967 — Associated Press — 14 F

This picture of the slain holdup suspect, Phillip Haas, 40, also known as Phillip Royal, of 1206 St. Patrick St., was taken in 1950 when he was arrested on a burglary charge. He also was arrested that year for assault and robbery.



—Journal-Times Photo

Kenosha County authorities Friday inspected a bullet pierced auto used as a getaway car by two men suspected of robbing the Silver Lake State Bank of $15,000 Friday. The car crashed into a utility pole while being pursued by a Kenosha County sheriff's deputy who shot and killed Phillip Haas, 40, also known as Phillip Royal, of 1206 St. Patrick St., as he tried to flee on foot. At least one other suspect is being sought.